RECOGNITION OF CITIZENS/SPECIAL PRESENTATION

Cindy Rodriguez from SWFWMD introduced herself and let the Council know they can call on her anytime. Michael Smith from 125 Poinsettia Lake Hamilton read a letter to the Council that he was displeased with the Police Department, the Council and the Town in general and will be moving out of Town as soon as his home sales. Philip Van Winkle asked to speak on the sewer project on Hwy 27 but Council asked if could wait to speck because this is an agenda item. Mr. Van Winkle agreed.

AMENDMENT OF THE MINUTES:

ITEM IIB: Appointment of the Citizens Advisory Task Force (CATF). Doug Leonard stated that the CATF needed to be appointed in order to consider a project for the Community Development Block Grant Program. He had received five applications for the committee and recommended that the following citizens be appointed, Michael Shorette, Pixie Kehoe, Vanessa O'Neill, Brittney Sandovalsoto, and Charlie Johnson. After a short discussion Councilman Barrett O'Neill made the motion to appoint all five volunteers to the CATF, Councilman Tomlinson seconded the motion. The motion pass unanimously.

ATTEST:
